

FintechWerx Completes License and Services Agreement

Vancouver, October 22, 2025 – Fintechwerx International Software Services Inc. (CSE: WERX) (“FintechWerx” or the “Company”) is pleased to confirm that Secure Digital Payments (“SDP”), a Canadian payments technology and payment gateway services provider, has entered into a License and Services Agreement to add PaymentWerx to their technology stack.

SDP, a leading technology provider powering payment infrastructure for merchants across Canada, has partnered with FintechWerx to modernize processing systems, enhance fraud prevention, and deliver greater operational resilience across its network.

PaymentWerx organizes hundreds of APIs across global gateways and payment methods under one umbrella to drive approvals and protect margins.

About PaymentWerx

PaymentWerx is the payment gateway for FintechWerx, providing a unified, secure, and scalable gateway integrated with multiple payment methods (Credit, Debit, ACH, Interac, Wallets, Crypto, etc.) and fraud mitigation tools for merchants, independent sales organizations, and payment service providers.

It also intelligently routes transactions and provides real-time analytics, all within a PCI-compliant and globally compatible infrastructure.

George Hofsink, FintechWerx Co-Founder & CEO:

"Secure Digital Payments' adoption of PaymentWerx is a strong validation of FintechWerx's commitment to empowering payment service providers. By automating critical payment service functions and risk assessment, we can help speed up SDP's processes with tools to scale efficiency, improve compliance, and drive profitability in a highly competitive marketplace."

David Shafir, President and Founder of Secure Digital Payments, commented:

“Integrating PaymentWerx into our technology stack strengthens SDP’s ability to deliver faster, smarter, and more secure payment solutions to our clients across North America. This partnership allows us to leverage FintechWerx’s powerful API orchestration and routing intelligence to optimize approval rates, reduce fraud exposure, and improve settlement efficiency. It’s a meaningful step in our broader strategy to unify crypto and traditional payment infrastructures under one seamless, compliant ecosystem.”
